The quotations used in our research reports do not reflect all information or opinions they have shared with us. In addition, the experts have typically received compensation for their conversations with us and may have conflicts of interest or other biases, which may give them an incentive to provide us with inaccurate, incomplete or otherwise prejudiced opinions or information. Former employees that we speak with are by definition separated from the company and thus the information or opinions they have provided may be outdated. Our research and Report include forward-looking statements, estimates, projections, and opinions prepared with respect to, among other things, certain accounting, legal, and regulatory issues the Covered Issuer faces and the potential impact of those issues on its future business, financial condition and results of operations, as well as more generally, the Covered Issuer’s anticipated operating performance, access to capital markets, market conditions, assets and liabilities. Such statements, estimates, projections and opinions may prove to be substantially inaccurate and are inherently subject to significant risks and uncertainties beyond GCR’s, GIP’s and their affiliates’ control. No representation is made, or warranty given as to the accuracy, completeness, achievability or reasonableness of such statements of opinion.

GCR and GIP believe all information contained herein is accurate and reliable, and has been obtained from public sources it believes to be accurate and reliable. However, such information is presented “as is,” without warranty of any kind, whether express or implied. GCR and GIP and their affiliates make no representation, express or implied, as to the accuracy, timeliness, or completeness of any such information or with regard to the results to be obtained from its use. All expressions of opinion are subject to change without notice, and GCR and GIP are not obligated to update or supplement any Reports or any of the information, analysis and opinion contained in them. GCR and GIP make no representation, express or implied, as to the accuracy, completeness, achievability, reasonableness, timeliness of any such information or statements or with regard to the results to be obtained from its use.

You agree to do your own research and due diligence before making any investment decision with respect to securities covered herein. You represent to GCR and GIP that you have sufficient investment sophistication to critically assess the information, analysis, and opinions in this Report.

In no event will you hold GCR and GIP or any affiliated and related parties liable for any direct or indirect trading losses caused by any information in this Report. Affiliated and related parties include, but are not limited to partners, principals, officers, directors, employees, members, clients, investors, advisors, consultants and agents. In no event shall GCR and GIP or their affiliates and their related persons be liable for any claims, losses, costs or damages of any kind, including direct, indirect, punitive, exemplary, incidental, special, or consequential damages, arising out of or in any way connected with any content of this Report. You further agree that you will not communicate the contents of this report to any other person unless that person has agreed to be bound by these same terms.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST: At the time of publication of this Report, GCR, GIP, their affiliates, or related persons (possibly along with or through its members, partners, affiliates, employees, and/or consultants), hold short positions in the Covered Issuer’s stock (and/or options, swaps, and other derivatives related to the stock) and stand to profit in the event the Covered Issuer’s stock price declines. Thus, while GCR and GIP have made every effort to present the information contained in the Report in an objective manner, the reader of the Report must bear in mind that GCR’s and GIP’s interests and that of their affiliates is to see the price of the Covered Issuer’s stock price decline.

GCR, GIP, and their affiliates may take additional positions in the Covered Issuer (both long and short) at a future date, and disclaim any obligation to notify the market of any such changes except to the extent that it is legally required. In order to manage risk, we must close open positions as we deem prudent. We do not provide “price targets”, although we may express our opinion of what the security is worth. An opinion of the value of a security differs from a price target in that we do not purport to have any insight as to how the market as a whole might value a security – we can only speak for how we, ourselves, view its value. We therefore do not hold a position until it reaches a certain price target, nor do we hold positions until they reach the price at which we have expressed a valuation opinion. There are numerous factors that enter into investment decisions aside from opinions of the value of the security, including without limitation, the borrow cost of a shorted security, the potential for a “short squeeze”, prudent risk sizing relative to capital and volatility, reduced information asymmetry, the opportunity cost of capital, client expectations, and the ability to hedge market risk, among other things. Therefore, you should assume that upon publication of this report, we will, or have begun to, close a substantial portion – possibly the entirety – of our positions in the Covered Issuer’s securities.

Summary: Bridgecrest provides consumer auto loans for various used car dealerships, including Drivetime and Carvana. People with a Bridgecrest account can set their it up for autopay or log in through the company's website or app to pay their bills. SoloSuit explains how a Bridgecrest loan works.

If you've recently purchased a used car from Carvana, Drivetime, or another dealership, you may have a Bridgecrest loan. Bridgecrest offers high-interest auto loans to people with poor credit. They partner with dealerships nationwide, which connect customers with Bridgetime when they don't have financing from another lender.

Staying on top of your Bridgecrest payments is critical to avoid late fees, extra interest charges, and vehicle repossession. You can make payments through the company's website by logging into your account. The company also has a payment app you can download through the Apple or Google Play store.

 - o Bridgecrest (financing), Carvana, DriveTime, & SilverRock (warranty company) are all owed by the Garcia family. It is interesting to know this family has been in legal trouble due to insider trading. Also, all these companies have a lot of bad reviews. Bridgecrest will approve anyone, and it's rare to get an APR lower than 20%. The average APR for a used car is about 5%. - Reddit post: We're both right and wrong, really. If your loan is through Bridgecrest Credit then it is a Carvana loan serviced by Bridgecrest. If it's Bridgecrest Acceptance then they own the loan. In my case, the loss payee is Bridgecrest Acceptance, so they originated the Carvana purchase. I don't know the criteria that determines this (credit profile, probably), but since it's all the same company regardless then I don't suppose it matters really. (smile)

"I got my car through Carvana and have it financed through Bridgecrest. When I was registering my car in NC, I put Carvana as my lienholder instead of Bridgecrest, and got a letter from the NCDMV stating "the title will be held by NCDMV until your lender has complied with the electronic lienholder requirements" and that "your lender must contact one of the electronic lien service provider vendors and register" [4 December 2024]

NC - Put wrong lienholder on registration, NCDMV is now holding my title

Before anyone says it, I KNOW this was dumb and I messed up - I'm still learning how all of this works since this is my first car.

I got my car through Carvana and have it financed through Bridgecrest. When I was registering my car in NC, I put Carvana as my lienholder instead of Bridgecrest, and got a letter from the NCDMV stating "the title will be held by NCDMV until your lender has complied with the electronic lienholder requirements" and that "your lender must contact one of the electronic lien service provider vendors and register".

How do I fix this and get my title back?

Evidence from several legal proceedings indicates that the partnership between BAC and CVNA encompasses more than just loan servicing function

Complaint about CVNA and Bridgecrest Acceptance Corp committing forgery:

15. The June 3 2021 retail installment contract and security agreement signed by the plaintiff for the purchase of the 2020 Cadillac XT5, provided for 71 payments of $368.00 and one payment of $309.47. But however, prior to Carvana assigning the contract to the defendant Bridgecrest Acceptance Corporation, Carvana falsified the contract, by forging the plaintiff's name to a different contract that increased the payments from $368.00 per month to $405.00 per month.

55. Pursuant to 16 CFR 433, et seq., the defendant Bridgecrest Acceptance Corporation is a creditor. The written documents referred to herein were allegedly assigned by the defendant Carvana to the defendant Bridgecrest Acceptance Corporation.

58. The actions of the defendant Bridgecrest and Carvana constitutes an illegal conspiracy against the plaintiff to commit fraud.

59. Bridgecrest knows of, benefits from, and participates in the defendant Carvana's practice of committing forgery, and of illegally changing document terms without the consent of the debtor, in this case, the plaintiff

60. The conspiracy between the defendants is that after Carvana "assigns" the forged and illegally modified document to Bridgecrest, and that then Bridgecrest engages in unlawful collections activities against the debtor, in this case, the plaintiff.

Does Bridgecrest or Carvana own title?

January 2019 FICO Forums post:

Hey guys, need advice on my current situation. I purchased a vehicle from Carvana, went through the application and i was able to obtain financing through sub prime lender, Bridgecrest. I know Bridgecrest is probably involved in some shady business but i need to rebuild my credit and thought i can refinance in 6 months or so.. Anyways, here is the situation. Carvana delivered the car and processed my 1200 downpayment via ACH Debit.. The bank declined the transaction due to insufficient funds (yes my fault).. However, I called Carvana 4-5 days later and asked them if i can wire the money to them, cut them a certified check or pay with my debit card. At this point, they are declining my money and say that they want the car back or they are going to repossess it and that they will not accept any cash because i defaulted and they wont allow me to make good on the Down Payment.. In the mean time, my account balance with Bridgecrest is about 23k. According to my credit report, the leinholder is also Bridgecrest and my account is in good standing.. I called Bridgecrest and they said Carvana wants to Unwind the loan - what does this mean? Can they unilaterally unwind the loan? Also, in addition to this, a section of the Carvana contract state that any miles driven above 400 miles will be charged $1 a mile, i feel like they are trying to screw me on this one.. I have the cash to make good on the downpayment (I HAVE CERTIFIED FUNDS), they just wont accept it!! What should I do? I know the payment was initially declined, but I already have an open account that I intend to fully make good on.. Can Carvana legally do this? Is this a direct violation of the Unfair/Deceptive Trade Practices Act? Please help as I do not know how to proceed. By the way I reside in Texas

Response: Hi thanks for your answer, financing has been secured as i stated in my question.. There is an open account with the Lender (Bridgecrest).. it is Carvanas decision to not accept my payment, not the Lender.. Thinking this is more a Deceptive/Unfair Trade Practices case?

Re: Auto Loan Unwinding - Dealership not accepting my cash

Message 2 of 13

Hello and welcome to the forums!

To answer your biggest question - Yes, it's legal.

A dealer can exercise a valid contraction right to rescind the contract before the contractual deadline passes. This often occurs when financing is not secured.

Also, since you took delivery of and operated that vehicle, this transaction will be treated as a rollback, not an unwind.

You should probably speak to Carvana and try and convince them to use a different lender. At the same time, it would not hurt engaging a credit defense attorney.

Good luck!

November 2022 reddit post:

Probably totally unrelated. But I traded my car that was financed through Bridgecrest 2 months ago. The dealership told me that there are a lot of title issues with Bridgecrest, a lot of people are not receiving titles when they pay their cars off, so much so that they've been banned in a couple of states. I never had any problems with them for the two years I had my car, but I'm glad I traded it in. Makes me think they are just putting something out there to put the blame on you, but I'm no expert.

August 2021 Reddit post:

My car was bought and register red in my dad's name(interest rate reasons) however I make all the payments and insurance is under my name. I live in Georgia so I had to travel to NY to pick up the car snd drive it back to GA. We recently found out NYS is suspending the registration because the insurance does not match the state of registration. Getting new insurance in NY would mean re-registering, paying a shit ton of lapse insurance and getting a shittier quote. I have the option of registering in GA however my dad lives in NY and doesn't have a GA ID so that won't be option. GA dmv is requiring a letter from bridgecrest(lien holder) to permit my name on the title so that I can register. I've been going back and forth between bridgecrest, carvana and the DMV of both states about the situation but I'm getting no where. Bridgecrest is refusing me because they're saying the only way I can get that letter is if I pay the car off or refinance it. I've been through a couple of banks already and having hard inquiries on my credit is fucking it up. I'm not comfortable playing the "oh I hope they accept my application" game anymore with my credit. Idk what else to do I'm stressed tf out.

Help! I purchased my vehicle from Carvana March 2024. I NEVER got my correct registration. They attempted to send it 4 months after the temps expired, but it went to the wrong address. After that, I stopped paying my car note as I could not drive it legally. January 2025, the lender charged off my account.

Carvana is now saying they are willing fix their fault. But lender (bridgecrest) is saying they can't do anything about the charge off.

December 2024 Reddit post:

Before anyone says it, I KNOW this was dumb and I messed up - I'm still learning how all of this works since this is my first car. I got my car through Carvana and have it financed through Bridgecrest. When I was registering my car in NC, I put Carvana as my lienholder instead of Bridgecrest, and got a letter from the NCDMV stating "the title will be held by NCDMV until your lender has complied with the electronic lienholder requirements" and that "your lender must contact one of the electronic lien service provider vendors and register".

BBB complaint 11/11/2025

The company Carvana has a 7 day car "try-out" period, during that time I paid off the loan amount needed to purchase that vehicle. On the 7th day, the car started having issues. I returned the vehicle. Rather than refunding my money, I was initially told my funds would transfer to a new vehicle, traded, at Carvana. The funds did not transfer. Bridgecrest (Carvana's loan company) informed me after two weeks that I would receive a check from Carvana. Carvana then told me I would receive my funds after I completed registration with my state registrar, . I did. I called carvana, they told me I would receive a check within 2-3 weeks. I did not receive it. I text/messaged with Carvana 4 weeks later and was told a manager would text me. 6 days later Carvana had still not messaged me. September 9, 2025 the initial vehicle was exchanged for the current vehicle. It is now November 11. Carvana's loan company does not show the previous account, it shows no record of the previous vehicle account or funds paid. It is as if the $18,914.84 has vanished, and I need that money. Meanwhile, Carvana's loan company, , is charging me interest on a vehicle that has already been paid off. I need my initial funds and the interest charges, returned, and I am only getting run-around.

I purchased a vehicle from Carvana, financed through Bridgecrest, and it arrived with serious electrical and lighting problems. The car has been in repair shops for nearly the entire three months I have owned it and has never been available for normal use. I have made three monthly payments of $506 for a vehicle that remains defective and unsafe to drive. The problems have not been resolved despite multiple repair attempts. I am requesting full loan cancellation, reimbursement of the payments I have already made, and removal of any negative credit reporting. I have already filed a formal complaint with the  regarding this issue. I expect prompt action to resolve this matter fairly and to avoid further escalation.

I am formally rejecting Carvanas response, as it does not address the many serious and ongoing issues with the 2019 * Expedition Max I purchased from them. Response text dated 10/07/2024: Carvana lied about us missing documents per NH state town clerk. The information provided was more than enough. With our documents and the title we got plates in 9 minutes. Carvanas DMV department is vastly undereducated or lying about NH state requirements. Additionally they forgot to add the co-signer to the title, changed the lien holder from Bridgecrest to Carvana, and lied about the  Not satisfied and moving forward with litigation.

Response text dated 12/07/2024 Dear BBB, Thank you for bringing this situation to our attention. Carvana must reflect on the title since the customer is financing with us. BBB complaint: 09/05/2024

I have been trying to do move registration, and my state needs a copy of the title. I reached out to Carvana in January 28th, 2024 to inquire about the copy of title and submitted a fax request. I was informed it would take 8 weeks. It is now May 9th,2024 and I have not received a copy of my title to the clerk court in  for Montgomery county or through my email as I requested as well. I have had to drive around on a temporary tag and cannot renew my tags because of this issue they keep ignoring to fix. This is the worst experience and I will never buy a car again from Carvana and I would let everyone know my experience as this is not right. My car is also being paid off this year as well so Im not understanding why they arent giving me my copy of the title. I make my living off driving because I am a disabled veteran now, and not having my tags updated or being able to obtain a permanent tag prevents me from working and getting income, this is another reason why this is very important as well. I ask that Carvana send over the mailed and emailed copy of my title for my car asap so I can get permanent tags.

Response text dated 26/06/2024: Dear BBB, We deeply regret the inconvenience and frustration that the customer has experienced with obtaining a copy of their car title. We understand how critical this matter is, especially given the customer's reliance on their vehicle for their livelihood as a disabled veteran. The prolonged delay and lack of communication are not reflective of the service we aim to provide. We sincerely apologize for the delay and any stress this situation has caused. In order to complete a Move Request, the customer must make this request at their new local . The  will then reach out to the correct lienholder, Bridgecrest for Carvana Financed vehicles, to begin the process of transferring the previous title, or creating a new one with the correct state listed. Thank you for bringing this to our attention. We are committed to resolving this promptly

I purchased a vehicle from Carvana, and picked the vehicle up on 10/02/2023 for $51,045.43 and put $15,000 down on the vehicle making the total balance due $36,045.43 I was provided a temp tag that is apparently for the . I live in , and temp tags should only be used for 7 days in the . The original drive out tag i received has the expiration date of 12/29/2023. We are approaching the expiration date, and i have called and chatted with multiple representatives at Carvana about getting my registration. I have been lied to multiple times and have screenshots of messages. In  we do not get our tags at the * but we get them at the tax collectors office. There are 3 tax collectors offices in DeSoto County where i live that i have checked multiple times, and they do not have any paper work from carvana for the registration. I was told i could just show up with the purchase agreement, license, and insurance and get my tags but this is untrue. They need paperwork before this can be done. I spoke with someone on 12/17 that said my title has been sent to Bridgecrest who is my lender. I called Bridgecrest, and they do not have my title. I was told by someone today 12/18 the title would not be sent until registration is completed. I have been told by someone else today 12/18 that all of the paperwork was sent to my DMV and carvana is waiting to hear back from the * I did call my DMV to make sure it has not been sent to them, and they stated no they only do licenses there, and tags and registration are through the tax collectors office. I called the tax collectors office after speaking with the representative who stated my paperwork has been sent, and the tax collectors told me once again they did not have any paperwork at any of the 3 locations in my county. I was also informed since i live in MS i cannot get a new temp tag. I need this resolved as i drive for work and this is getting to be unacceptable.

Response text dated 12/06/2023: Dear BBB, Thank you for bringing this situation to our attention. We appreciate the customers time in providing us with an update on the experience they had with us. After further review of the customers account, it appears we are currently working directly with them to resolve their concerns. Carvana is not the loan provider for this vehicle, therefore we would not be the correct company to contact regarding this matter. The customer will need to contact BridgeCrest, has they are who handle the monthly payments. Carvana has nothing showing the customer owes us money and the registration for the vehicle has been the customer's responsibility since 2021.  is lienholder for a vehicle that was refinanced from Carvana. Loan was funded 10/07/2022, to date Mocse does not have title. Attempts made to get perfected title: 11/15/22, 11/30/22, 1/6/23, 2/1/23, 2/2/23, 2/7/23, 2/23/23 and 5/5/23. Each time being told to wait anywhere from * business days and then being told to wait up to 10 weeks on 2/24/23. This has caused 's borrower to be driving around on expired tags. I have worked really hard to make multiple calls between Carvana and their loan servicing company (Bridgecrest) with no results. Each time having to speak with someone new, getting the run around.

Response text dated 10/05/2023: Dear BBB, Thank you for bringing this situation to our attention. We appreciate the customers time in providing us with an update on the experience they had with us. We take the customers feedback very seriously and will ensure it is passed to the proper department. Unfortunately, we are unable to locate an account with the information that was provided. Because this is an issue with refinancing, the customer will need to contact the original loan provider, BridgeCrest for the lien release. Carvana is the seller, however, we are not the loan providers and do not have access to the loan or lien release. My car was totaled in an accident on 12/03/2022. The insurance at fault paid their portion and my gap insurance paid their portion. However there was an outstanding balance owed by me for $1028.10 that according to Carvana was due by Feb 19, 2023 as to not incur any other charges. I paid $998.10 as it was the only amount that their system would allow me. I have made numerous calls to Carvana total loss department and no one has managed to correct the account. In order for me to obtain another car loan this account has to be closed out. I am a senior who is on social security and working part time with many health issues and currently having to paid Uber for transportation which has been very costly. I am only asking that my account is corrected so that I may be able to purchase another vehicle. As of today is $469.18 plus .24cents compounded daily.....

GoFi and Carvana share long history together

2016-2017. GoFi is mentioned as the subprime lender used by Carvana

Carvana's subprime financing arm: GoFi is mentioned as the subprime lender used by Carvana for its in-house financing. Multiple posts state that financing through Carvana is handled by GoFi:

GoFi allegedly shut its lending activities in 2016

Go Financial described as "lender partner" of Carvana is said to have shut down in May 2016:

Used-car seller Carvana expanded into Virginia last month and has plans to open a dozen more locations by yearend, despite the loss of one of its main lender-partners. GO Financial, which shut its doors in May, had been providing loans to Carvana customers.

Chief Executive Ernie Garcia expects "no disruption" to the financing portion of Carvana's business, though he declined to elaborate on the retailer's other financing arrangements. Meanwhile, Carvana Proof that GoFi kind of shut down but not really between 2017-2022.

GoFi LLC, which supposedly launched in 2022, has actually gone by the names CarFi LLC, GFC Lending LLC, Go Financial Company LLC, and GoFi LLC (see timeline outlined below).
